CINDERELLA WAS FINE SUCCESS

OPERATIC COMEDY PLEASSED BIG AUDIENCE.

A capacity house greeted "Cinderella" at the school auditorium Friday evening. This beautiful operetta was under the auspices of the Woman's club under the direction of Mrs. A. M. Lewis assisted by Mrs. C. G. Clippert. The cast of characters had been very ably chosen. The opening scene was worth the price of admission. The fairy Godmother, Miss Beatrice Trudo with 30 fairies gathered together to plan the magic changing of poor little Cinderella into a real princess that she might attend the grand ball. Most bewitching and sylvan-like were these tots in their blue and pink airy costumes with wings, as they danced in and out and around while the Fairy Godmother sang to them and they responded in chorus.

The second scene, presented Cinderella in the kitchen wishing to go to the ball that she might meet the prince. This part was taken by Miss Marie Schmidt in her usual sweet and winning manner. The solo was exceedingly well rendered and brought a hearty applause from the audience. The stepsisters, Bernice Corwin and Gertrude Loskos were also very good in this act.

Scene three, The ball room at the palace, was very attractive. Here were gathered the Lords and Ladies, Helen Schumann, Margrethe Hanson, Ella Hanson, Margaret Warren, Maxine Collen, Russell Peterson, Edward Mason, Carlyle Brown, John Kuster, Emerson Hoesli, Bert Trudo, in anticipation of the arrival of the prince, Albert Schroeder, who was very clever in his part and sang the solo very well indeed. Of course Cinderella, now a beautiful lady also arrives and dances with the prince and with whom the prince falls in love. During the dance however she mysteriously leaves and the silver slipper is the only trace left of her. Throughout this act as well as in the first act, Cupid is very prominent. This part was taken by Betty Jane Welsh whose portrayal of this part was perfect. Her gracefulness in handling the bow and arrow as she danced around the prince, piercing his heart with darts of love, won the audience at once and made her one of the favorites.

Scene four was laid in the parlor of the home of Cinderella. With the stepmother, Evelyn Hiedemann, and the step daughters anxiously waiting for the fitting of the silver slipper. The prince is there hoping that his dream of the princess of the ball may be realized. After they find that the stepsister cannot wear the magic slipper, Cinderella comes in, and much to the disgust of her family, walks off with the slipper, and the prince and the princess are happy once more.

Between each act a specialty was given which kept the audience in keen spirits—Miss Elizabeth Matson and Mark Lewis sang and acted "Nobody's Sweetheart" in such a clever manner, the audience were convulsed. The acrobats, Bruce McConnell, Ellis Dougherty and Riddle Harrison, pulled off real stunts that showed that the boys were quite artists in their line.

A feature dance which was most cleverly and gracefully rendered was given by Jane Keyport and Margaret Campbell of Traverse City. They carried the part out in pantomime but the audience was able to follow the story of the two mischievous little girls and their naughty antics through the dance.

The clown dance given by Elizabeth Matson, Anna Hanson, Ruth Johnson, Helen Lietz, and Mary Esther Schumann made a hit with the audience and showed they had been trained for the part. Mrs. Milnes and Miss Cavanaugh were responsible for this act.

Mrs. Lewis surely showed marked ability in carrying out such a delightful operetta in such an efficient manner. She was very ably assisted in the music by Mrs. C. G. Clippert, whose ability was also shown. The Woman's Club gave assistance in decorating making costumes etc., and their efforts were rewarded by the sum of $125 which will be used for charity purposes.

SPIRIT OF UNITY NEEDED

The Grand Rapids Herald in a recent editorial, discussing the proposed extension of M-54 said: "Those who are sponsoring this move should use care lest their enthusiasm detract from Western Michigan's wholehearted espousal of M-13 paving. If the extension of M-54 can be accomplished without detracting from the force of Western Michigan's demands that M-13 be paved, all well and good. But there should be no division in this section of the state that will by any chance delay permanent construction of M-13."

This spirit of unity and co-operation in Western Michigan has made possible the paving of M-11 and no doubt will result in M-13 getting their share of hard surfaced road in the near future.

The M-14 Association organized for the purpose of promoting the paving of this trunk line is not opposed to any improvements on M-13, but believe that M-14, because of location, traffic and condition, deserves immediate attention.

If M-14 is paved, it will be because the Central and Eastern section of the state are united wholeheartedly in sponsoring this much needed improvement.

This Association should have the support of every citizen in this community.

F. DANIELS, BEAVER CREEK CITIZEN WRITES FROM CALIF.

Frank Daniels, a well known farmer of Beaver Creek township, who is enjoying a trip to the "coast" announces his arrival there in the following letter:

Oceanside, Calif., Nov. 5. Dear Mr. Schumann:

Arrived here yesterday after a pleasant trip. This is a great place; it is quite warm. Conditions and living conditions don't look so bad.

It looks great to see the fruit growing and the green grass, and I noticed one place where they were cutting hay.

I visited my son and he looks good and showed me around quite a bit. Give my regards to everybody I know in Grayling, and be sure to send the Avalanche.

FRANK DANIELS.

WANTS COOPERATION WITH CO. NURSE

I wonder how many realize the importance of our County Nurse? How many cooperate with her to get all the good possible from her work?

I notice she wishes to organize a class in Home Hygiene and care of the sick. How many mothers are taking advantage of this?

Stop and think, mothers, what it means to you, not only to how to care for your child or loved one if they are sick, but how to keep them well.

Our County nurse asks no extra remuneration for this, but wishes to accomplish all the good she possibly can.

How could mothers use their time to better advantage? Isn't the knowledge gained worth more than to play a good game of "500" and with the expenditure of no more time? Our County nurse informs me that she will start a class as soon as enough names have been sent in. Hurry up, mothers, send your names in right away. Let us get a class started.

Mrs. Jennie Murphy.

NEW OFFICE BUILDING OF NORTHEASTERN MICHIGAN DEVELOPEMENT BUREAU AND EASTERN MICHIGAN TOURIST ASSOCIATION

TO HAVE FINE NEW OFFICE BUILDING

INFORMATION CENTER AND A TOURIST RESTING PLACE

Officers of the Northeastern Michigan Development Bureau and the Eastern Michigan Tourist Association, following their annual meetings, announced plans for the erection at Bay City of a new office building to house the business administration of the two bodies.

The accompanying illustration shows the facade of the proposed building. The site is a park, centrally located and owned by the Pere Marquette Railroad company which has been leased to the two bodies at a nominal price.

The building will be rustic structure of logs and stone typifying the pioneer period and reminiscent in architectural design of East Michigan's recreational resources. While logs and stones will be dominating constructive materials, the rustic atmosphere will be emphasized throughout even to interior decorations, furniture, finishing and fixtures.

A huge fireplace built of stone will accent the hospitable spirit of Michigan residents toward the visitor from other states. Herman Lundin, of Lewiston, president of the Northeastern Michigan Development Bureau, brought to the annual meeting a large stone slab, which will be used as the keystone for the fireplace.

Lumber mills, stone quarries and allied industries in East Michigan, it is expected, will volunteer the contribution of basic materials. One concern has already offered to supply interior work in which the enterprise specializes gratis. Virtually every material used in the construction of the building will be the product of East Michigan soil and factory.

An inland map of East Michigan over the portal will meet the eyes of the visitor traversing the street.

Some idea of the interest already manifested in the proposed building is gained from the fact that the Bay County board of Supervisors, which subscribes $2,000 annually to the work of the organization has also voted $1,000 toward the expense of constructing the building. Many other boards of Supervisors in the district are expected to follow the example of Bay's supervisors.

It is possible that tickets of admission to forthcoming meetings of the two organizations will be a stone which members from different localities in the 37 counties of the district will contribute for the fireplace to be situated at one end of the building.

The Northeastern Michigan Development Bureau, with an agricultural frame-work as its basis of constructive development, comprises Bay and 15 other counties in Northeastern Michigan. The East-Michigan Tourist association encompasses the territory in the eastern half of the lower peninsula extending from the Ohio state line to Mackinaw City. Its purpose is to advertise the bountiful recreational advantages of East Michigan to the millions of people residing in states to the south and east. Both bodies are incorporated under the laws of the state of Michigan in that class of corporations organized "not for profit and gain."

It is estimated that the tourist and resort money left in Michigan during the 1925 season totalled more than $200,000,000. Every county in East Michigan got a share of this golden stream of cash and it found its way into every channel of trade. Land heretofore liabilities because of their agricultural barrenness have been made assets by the advent of the tourist and resort. Realty values especially on inland lakes, the great lakes and rivers and streams, have appreciated remarkably through the recreational appeal. The whole section, it is said, has had an awakening to the importance of the business which today is the third industry of the state and one of the fastest growing industries.

ANNUAL MEETING BOARD OF TRADE, NOV. 17

The annual meeting of the Grayling Board of Trade will be held at their rooms on Tuesday, November 17th at 8:30 p. m., for the purpose of electing directors, reducing membership dues and any other business. All members are requested to be present. Dated Nov. 5, 1925. R. H. Gillett, President.

Grayling School Notes

It is the part of wisdom to spend little of your time upon the things that vex and anger you, and much of your time upon the things that bring quietness, and confidence and good cheer.—Van Dyke.

Geometry, Geometry, why dost thou mock at me? My head is all a jumble when I do look at thee.

It's problems in the morning, It's problems in the night, The pace my mind is going Is certainly a fright.

Our Janitor, we pity him, As all good people must, For every morning the poor good man Again returns to dust.

Friday afternoon an exciting football game was played with Grayling. Although it was an extremely cold day, several foot-ball fans accompanied the team, and surely they showed their appreciation when our old stand-by—Robertson—made the first touchdown. We are sorry to say that our splendid fullback Mosher was kept out of the game by illness. If he had been there we are sure Grayling would not have received the victory. The score was 19 to 6.

Miss Harris has been detained in her home this week on account of illness, but we hope to have her back with us in a day or so. Mr. Smith has been taking her place.

Most all of the classes have been reviewing in preparation for the quarterly examinations which will begin Wednesday.

GODFELLOWSHIP CLUB NOTES

Mrs. Lillian Sparkes was hostess to the Godfellowship club Monday evening. Meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Kraus.

Roll Call.

Business.

A most interesting and profitable talk on Politics was given by M. A. Bates.

This was followed by a question box on political questions which were ably answered by Mr. Bates and discussed by the club.

Meeting adjourned.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 16 with Miss Bauman.

WOMENS CLUB NOTES.

Mrs. Esbern Olson was hostess to the Woman's Club Monday evening. The president, Mrs. Charles Gothro was in the chair and after the business meeting the following program was enjoyed: Americanization—Mrs. Winifred McNeven. Fifteen questions on Know your Town—Mrs. Gertrude Peterson.

DELIGHTFUL LUNCHEON.

A very delightful luncheon was given Wednesday afternoon at Shoppenagon Inn by Mrs. Henry Bauman in honor of Mrs. Robt. Roblin. The guests were seated at a large table in the center of which was a flat basket filled with various colored chrysanthemums, sweet peas and ferns, on the tall handle of the basket was tied a large bow of pink tulle. The following found their place cards at the table: Mrs. Robt. Roblin, Mrs. Oscar Hanson, Mrs. Salome Simpson, Mrs. Margaret Burton, Mrs. Ernest Larson, Mrs. Sigwald Hanson, Mrs. George McCullough, Mrs. R. H. Gillett, Mrs. L. J. Kraus, Mrs. Geo. Alexander, Mrs. Esbern Hanson, Mrs. Victor Salting, Mrs. Sidney Graham, Mrs. J. K. Hanson, Mrs. Chas. McCullough, Mrs. Chas. Tromble, Mrs. Marius Hanson, Mrs. O. P. Schumann, Mrs. Henry Bauman.

After reaching the home of the hostess the ladies were asked to choose a box from a number which had been placed in a pile and on opening them they found material and a slip marked with the name of an article to make for the fair. This caused considerable amusement and much pleasure. Mrs. Roblin was presented with a prize for her article. The affair was one of many pleasant occasions given for Mrs. Roblin.

I. J. WALKER ELECTED MAYOR OF NEW YORK

Tammany Candidate's Plurality Over Waterman Put at 400,000.

New York—Gov. Al. Smith and Tammany Hall won a big victory when the Democratic candidate for mayor of New York City, State Senator Jimmy Walker, was elected by an overwhelming vote and virtually the entire city government passed into Tammany control.

Walker won by a large majority over the combined vote of all opponents and by a plurality over the Republican candidate, Frank D. Waterman, the millionaire fountain pen manufacturer, exceeding 400,000.

To complete the triumph of Smith, the state voted in favor of all of the four proposed amendments to the constitution which the governor advocated.

The Republicans retain control of the state legislature, but in New York City few Republican candidates survived the Democratic landslide. Most prominent of these few is Mrs. John T. Pratt, silk stocking candidate for alderman in a Fifth avenue district.

Mrs. Pratt, who is the daughter-in-law of a Standard Oil magnate, defeated the son of former United States Senator James A. O'Gorman by a plurality of 2,600. She will be the first woman to sit in the board of aldermen.

With Walker, there were swept into office the entire Democratic city ticket and the Democratic borough and judicial tickets.

District Attorney Joab Banton of New York county, Democrat, defeated former Gov. Charles S. Whitman, whose Republicans nominated for the office of public prosecutor, which the once held and in which he made the reputation that sent him to the executive mansion in Albany a decade ago.

CRAWFORD BOY TAKES PRIZE

As a little hint of what Crawford County can do, we are glad to report that Earl Annis, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Annis, of Beaver Creek township, took a ribbon and a cash prize of one dollar on his Roxbury Russet apples at the Top O' Michigan Apple and Potato show held last week at Gaylord.

Earl also took a ribbon and a five dollar cash prize on his potatoes. The apples exhibited were Wolf River, Pewaukee, Bismarck, Canada Red, Snow and Roxbury Russet.

The potatoes were the Russet Rural.

Those who missed seeing the gorgeous display of apples missed something that should cause deep regret.

Michigan News

Tersely Told

The State Administrative Board at Lansing has taken the control of the Michigan State Fair Grounds into its own hands with the passage of a resolution declaring that the grounds shall be immediately opened to the public. This action followed the reading of a report from the business committee of the board of managers of the fair in which delay in opening the grounds was advised. The committee report was brought forth by the Administrative Board's resolution two weeks ago in which the board went on record in favor of opening the grounds and asked the board of managers of the fair to prepare plans.

The World Court and the Republican party's peace program were endorsed by former Justice John H. Clark of the United States Supreme Court in an address before the students at Michigan State College recently. Justice Clark is a Democrat and was appointed to the Supreme bench by Woodrow Wilson. He told the students that he resigned his appointment in order to spend the remainder of his life fighting the evils of war and attempting to bring about permanent peace.

The delegates to the forty-first meeting of the Detroit conference of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, held recently at Adrian, re-elected Mrs. Carl W. Holmes, of Detroit, to the presidency at the second session of the district convention. The roll called showed 81 visiting delegates present, including 41 from Detroit, 32 from Ann Arbor, and 7 from Flint. Twenty-five delegates arrived from the northern Michigan districts.

The Securities Commission's move to revoke the real estate license of the Southern Land & Homes Co., of Detroit, and of Pierre C. Allers, general sales agent for the company, ended in a compromise when attorneys appeared in Lansing and promised that the Southern Land & Homes Co. would reorganize as a corporation and would discontinue the use of the so-called Florida contract which the commission had declared to be objectionable.

Work of the research department of the college of engineering of the Michigan State University was described by Dean George Bissell of the college at a luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis club of Lansing. He declared the college planned to make an analysis of the sand and gravel of the various townships of the state with a view to aiding in improving the dirt and gravel roads of the state.

Freight totaling 71,627.723 tons has passed the Government locks at Sault Ste. Marie up to Nov. 1, a gain of 7,388,831 tons over the same period of last year, according to the official annual report for October. The tonnage for October was 11,837,192, as compared with 10,328,369 last year. Vessel passages numbered 8,945 as compared with 2,493 in October, 1924.

The Ionia Ministerial association has elected Rev. Thomas Leroy Parker, rector of the St. John Episcopal church, president; Rev. M. S. Decker, pastor of the Church of Christ, vice-president; and Rev. Alfred Treuher, pastor of the First Baptist church, secretary-treasurer. Rev. Benjamin Mohr, pastor of the Evangelical church, is the retiring president.

"Uncle Joe" Fordney, of Saginaw, former member of congress from the Eighth Michigan district and joint writer of the Fordney-McCumber tariff bill, celebrated his seventieth birthday yesterday, surrounded by his family. He left that night for his annual deer hunting outing in the wilds of the upper peninsula. He is feeling fine.

A grade separation between the Detroit, Toledo & Tronton railroad and trunk line M-55 in Monroe county, has been authorized by the State Administrative Board at Lansing. A communication from the Ford interests, owners of the D. T. and L., expressed a willingness to pay half the cost of $60,000.

The plant of the Michigan Chemical company at Essexville, near Bay City, has been sold to New York parties and shortly will resume the manufacture of alcohol, according to a statement made to Village President Garber.

Senator Woodbridge W. Ferris will speak at the annual public speaking banquet to be held at the Michigan Union, at Ann Arbor, Nov. 18. Prof. Oscar J. Campbell, of the English department, will be toastmaster.

Dr. Clarence Cook Little, president of the University of Michigan, will give the first address on the second radio program which will be broadcast from Ann Arbor Tuesday evening, Nov. 10, from 9 to 10 p. m. Other speakers include Dean Henry M. Bates and Prof. Ralph W. Alger, of the law school, and Prof. William J. Hussey, of the astronomy department. Musical numbers by the variety band and members of the school of music will be included on the program.

Harold Emmons, former president of the Detroit Board of Commerce, gave the principal address following the mid-day luncheon of the Monroe Exchange club last Thursday. Emmons during his address gave a vivid account of his eight months' trip through Africa, the customs of the people and his experience with elephants in the jungle along the river Nile. He said he killed one elephant which weighed five tons, one footed having been 56 inches in circumference.

After bickering over what should be done to remedy a critical situation in the city water supply, the city council of Greenville has voted to submit a bond issue of $10,000 to the voters at a special election to be held December 1 for the purpose of putting down additional wells on property recently acquired by the city. It is estimated, as the result of tests which have been made during the last few weeks, that the new wells will bring in a flow of 1,000 gallons of water a minute. Agitation for a water storage tower so far have not been taken into consideration in the proposed bond issue.

Plans have been virtually completed for the leasing by the city of Kalamazoo of 42 acres of unused state land adjacent to the grounds of the Kalamazoo State Hospital. Following a conference between Gov. Alex. J. Groesbeck and Charles A. Blaney, of Kalamazoo, it was announced that the Attorney General will draw up a long-term lease whereby the city may pay the state a nominal rental and make use of the 42-acre tract as a playground for school children. Mr. Blaney declared the city will build a stadium and otherwise improve the property.

In a letter to L. Whitney Watkins, commissioner of agriculture, Governor Groesbeck endorsed national apple week as a means of calling attention to the importance of this valuable food product and the part it has played in the economic affairs of the state. "The apple crop always plays an important part in the horticultural program of this commonwealth and the people of Michigan have good reason to join in the observance of apple week," the letter stated.

Secretary of State Charles J. DeLand will favor substituting a gasoline tax for all other automobile taxes if it is necessary for the state to demand five cents a gallon. "Relatively low cost of collecting a gasoline tax and minimum of inconvenience to the public are the principal and unrefuted arguments for establishing a gasoline tax as the sole basis for raising state highway funds," DeLand said at Lansing recently.

Hundreds of Hillside residents went over the hills to the poor house last Saturday, drawn to do homage to the memory of a well loved poet, Will Carleton, who was a graduate of Hillside College 51 years ago. A huge bronze tablet was unveiled at the site of the stone residence of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wolcott, the original building which inspired the writing of his poem.

When the night watchman at Perry, just south of Owosso, saw smoke issuing from the chimney of a restaurant, he was mystified, as he had seen the proprietor going home an hour earlier. When he investigated he found that a man, who gave his name as H. H. Lawson, of Flint, was calmly cooking a meal. Lawson is held on a charge of breaking and entering.

Richard Forward, 16 year old, of Eckford, is in a serious condition from gunshot wounds, at the sanitarium hospital. Forward shot at a rabbit hit a large rock, deflecting the shot into his own chest and neck. Thirty-four pieces of lead were removed from his body at the sanitarium. His injuries, however, are not considered as fatal.

Schools, churches, libraries, theaters and all places of meeting have been closed at Colon, near Sturgis, by the board of education and the board of public health in an effort to check a scarlet fever epidemic. Three new cases have been reported this week, two are seriously ill, with recovery doubtful.

Adoption of voting machines for all precincts of the city of Lansing was forecast following the test given the devices at four precincts. At all of the precincts where the machines had been installed the complete returns were available within 15 minutes after the close of the polls.

The American Legion auxiliary of Ionia will have a banquet and round-up of its members at the hall November 13 and the state president, Mrs. John Spaulding, of St. Johns, will be the speaker. The legion members also are invited to the event.

An application for the 1926 institute of the Fourth district of the Michigan State Teachers' association has been filed by the Association of Commerce of Grand Rapids. The representative assembly of the M. S. T. A. will be held there in March.

A report from Manistee says that Manistee County ranks eleventh in student representation at Central Michigan Normal school, Mt. Pleasant, with 20 students attending.

Jazz, joy rides, "petting" and "oo much social life" were attacked as deterrents to education by Dr. Clarence Cook Little in his address after inauguration as president of the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, Monday, Nov. 2. Expulsion of students who do not apply themselves in study was hinted by Dr. Little when he said: "For a student to insist that these matters are continually forced upon university is a just cause for his or her dismissal on the ground of unintelligence."

Officials of all Michigan cities in the state's major river group will be cited to appear at a December hearing to be held at Lansing, and show cause why they should not present some definite programme to clear the state rivers from pollution. Both the conservation and health departments agree that, if Michigan rivers are to be cleaned up, the first step should be taken with the state itself and the larger cities which, a report submitted by Inspector Murphy says, are the greatest offenders.

Irish Fight Vaccination
Vaccination is compulsory in the Irish Free State, but during the troubles of the last few years the enforcement of the law has been allowed to lapse. In many places the children have not been vaccinated for ten years. The government is now urging the local boards of health to insist on vaccination and to prosecute defaulters. But a feeling has grown up against vaccination and in Wexford the local authorities have refused to obey the government's instructions. The provision in the English law exempting from vaccination conscientious objectors to it does not apply to Ireland.

How Robert M. Koenig Found Remedy for Pimply Skin

For years my skin would break out every once in a while—and ointments did very little to help me. I read a doctor's article stating that pimply skin usually comes from the stomach—and bowels not getting rid of the poisons. I tried Carter's Little Liver Pills for a few days—and since that time my skin is smooth and clear. Now I tell my friends the right way of getting rid of a broken out skin—and also of steering clear of upset stomach and sick headache. Carter's are all you claim for them.

Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale, the founder of the card index system, was talking about New York hotel prices the other day.

"New York hotel prices," he said, "always remind me of a foreigner's visit to Chicago the year after the World's fair."

"Who is the owner of that palatial marble home?" the foreigner asked his guide.

"Pete Malvoglia," the guide answered. "He brought a ham to the World's fair and cut it up into sandwiches."

PEACOCK'S PRATTLE

"We're part of the beautiful landscape, we're part of the glory of the zoo," said Mr. Peacock.

"Whatever do you mean?" asked Mrs. Peacock.

"You are talking in a very silly and strange fashion."

"In the first place, explain yourself."

"What is landscape? How do you know it is beautiful? And why do you say we're part of the glory of the zoo?"

"What is glory and how much of glory are we, or how much of us is glory?"

"There, there, Mrs. Peacock," said Mr. Peacock. "You said you weren't going to ask more than one question."

"That is, you began by asking me to explain myself—and you said 'In the first place, explain yourself.'"

"I thought that meant that you would simply ask that one question—the first place—one."

"Then you went on asking question after question."

"That's right, so I did. But I would like answers to all of my questions, if you please."

"Well, one by one," said Mr. Peacock.

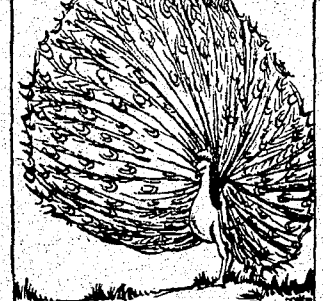

"Landscape is scenery—the hills and valleys are part of it."

"A beautiful landscape is a beautiful view."

"Oh," said Mrs. Peacock, "that was better toward the end."

"I didn't quite see how we were part of the hills and valleys—and for that matter I didn't see any hills and valleys."

"But when you say a beautiful view

Glory of the Zoo.

and that we are part of it, I can easily understand."

"For to look at us is a beautiful sight."

"It is," agreed Mr. Peacock proudly.

"Then I must tell you about the glory of the zoo."

"Well, that is a little harder to answer because—well because—I don't altogether know myself."

"Glory is something full of glory—glorious and lovely, you know."

"You begin badly every time," said Mrs. Peacock, "but you end off so I understand a little."

"When you say glory is something full of glory—well it sounds too queerly for words."

"It sounds as though you were saying that a pall of water was full of a pall of water."

"As long as I improve in the end, no matter," said Mr. Peacock, spreading his train so all would see him.

"There are many glorious and lovely things in the zoo and we're among the most glorious of all!"

"I can't help but admit it."

"There are the flowers, the green grass, the blue sky and ourselves."

"Well, the sky is rather high up to mention," said Mrs. Peacock.

"Nothing is too high up or too fine for me," said Mr. Peacock.

"Of course I don't mention the other animals because they count for very little beside the beautiful peacocks with their glorious feathers."

But while the peacocks were boasting of their happiness when the dear little Angora goats arrived in the springtime, and that they celebrated their happy time by shedding and having new wool grow.

They also chattered about how nice it was that they could eat anything and everything without getting sick. After all, that is quite nice!

George Washington was very small and very new to the life of the public school.

"And so your name is George Washington?" said the teacher.

"Yessum, George Washington."

"And I suppose you try to be as nearly like him as a little boy can, don't you?"

"Lak who, ma'am?"

"Like George Washington."

The youngster looked puzzled. "Ah lakn't help lak lak George Washington," he said stoutly, "coz that's who Ah am."

Too Much Knowledge for One Mind

Tom Wyatt was a Mississippi planter, one of the most generous and hospitable of a breed of men renowned for their hospitality and their generosity. His bachelor home, "Belmont," in Holmes county, was a haven of refuge for any down-and-outer. A stranger might come when he pleased and stay as long as he pleased.

One summer a certain brilliant and wellborn but dissipated young lawyer was Wyatt's guest. In periods of repentance and temporary abstinence this gentleman spent his spare hours poring over the Scriptures.

Wyatt, who was an outdoor man and no great shakes of a reader, said to him:

"Jim, you must have read mighty near half way through the Good Book by this time, haven't you?"

"Why, Tom," said the visitor, "I've read it all the way through, not once but several times."

"You mean from cover to cover, without skipping a word?"

"Yes sir, from cover to cover."

Wyatt slowly absorbed this remarkable statement. After a long pause he made answer:

"Jim," he said, "I'm reminded of a remark I once heard made by an old fellow down in the Delta. He said that when any man told him he knew all the multiplication table he must be a d—n liar!"

Scarcely a Lucrative Calling

A group of wealthy southerners, Virginians and Kentuckians mostly, were on a train returning from a meeting of the National Fox-Hunting association. Naturally the talk dealt largely with the sport of which they were devotees. A lank Vermontor, who apparently had never done much traveling away from his native state, was an interested auditor of the conversation.

Presently, when the company in the smoking compartment had thinned out, he turned to one of the party who had stayed on. He wanted to know how many horses the southerner kept for fox-hunting purposes and how large a pack of hounds he maintained and about how many foxes on an average he killed in the course of a season.

The southerner told him. In silence for a minute or two the Vermontor mulled the disclosures over in his mind.

Then he said:

"Wall, with fodder fetchin' such high prices, and with dog-meat for hounds a-costin' what it must cost you, and with fox pelts as cheap as they are in the open market, and takin' one thing with another, I don't see how you kin expect to clear much money out of the fox-huntin' business in the course of a year."

The proprietor of a drug store in a small Indiana town was issuing from the front door of his place when a small boy came tearing round the corner at top gait with his head down and butted squarely into him.

"Hee, kid!" demanded the druggist. "What's the matter?"

"I'm tryin' to keep two boys from gittin' into a fight," panted the youngster.

"Who are the boys?" asked the druggist.

"I'm one of 'em."

The Full of the Honeymoon

In Chicago a vaudeville comedian married a lady who was likewise connected with the profession. Immediately after the ceremony he left his bride in her room and went to the nearest blind tiger where, meeting a number of very congenial friends, he proceeded to celebrate the recent event fittingly. Several happy hours passed.

Toward dusk the bridegroom went to the telephone and called up his hotel and asked to be connected with his room. His new wife answered. In a slightly husky voice he said:

"Is that you, friend wife? Well, this is friend husband. I just made a date for dinner. How're things breaking for you?"

According to a reliable Canadian authority a London firm received from a merchant in Porto Rico a letter which, properly framed, now hangs on the walls of the home office—proof in denial of the ancient libel that the English don't know a joke when they see it.

The letter read as follows:

"Why, for God's sake, you send me pump without handle? My customer holder like h—l for water."

"I, S.—Since writing I find the d—n handle in the box."

AN UNFAIR ATTITUDE

Upon reviewing in an off-hand manner the activities of the Board of Trade we are impressed with the quite unfairness of the affair. Just a few men have to shoulder the burden year after year, in service and financially as well.

The first Board of Trade was formed in the year 1912. Since that time there have been a number of re-organizations, but the writer as well as a number of others that we could name have been in constant membership ever since, paying our dues and taking an active part in the work of the Board. It has cost real money and consumed a lot of valuable time. Is it just and fair that a few should have to bear this burden year after year, while others even fail to lend their financial support? Why is it that the few faithful ones are willing year after year to spend their time and the money in this work? Is it because they find any enjoyment in parting with their coin and spending their valuable time that they continue in the work? No, indeed, it is not. That $15.00 a year is just as hard for some of us to pay as it would be for others, and our time might be devoted selfishly to the promotion of our own business or interests.

Doesn't the town need a board of trade or some such organization? It certainly does, and we should dislike to live in a city the size of ours that couldn't support some kind of commercial organization.

And there are some members who seldom come to the meetings but who are helping with their money. That is all very good, but the officers need your moral backing and your counsel. It is not fair to ask a few to shoulder these responsibilities year after year without an occasional word of encouragement from the people of the community. Any person who accepts an office in the Board of Trade is making a personal sacrifice, and a little friendly interest helps a lot.

At the present time the annual dues for business men are $15.00 per year and it is a part of the program for the annual meeting next Tuesday to reduce the amount of the annual dues. Many are advocating $5.00 for everyone. Just what the result will be we cannot say at this time, but it does seem as though every property owner in the city could afford to become a member of the board, ready to share in the efforts advanced for the good of our community.

The Board cannot properly function without finances and the only way it has for securing them is by the payment into its treasury of the annual dues by its members. There must be funds or the Board may as well quit.

Should the proposed new normal school come to Grayling, and we are very hopeful that it will, it will be because of the work done by the Board of Trade. Where would we have been without this organization at this time? Answer the question by attending the annual meeting next Tuesday night. Let the members know whether or not their efforts are appreciated, and show them that you are willing to assume a part of these duties of community citizenship. Unless there is real interest shown on the part of the general public, there is a big chance of the Grayling Board of Trade soon becoming a thing of the past.

We cannot believe that the people of Grayling are going to let this happen. Let's stop throwing mud at the very fellows that are trying to do things for our town and prove that we are heart and soul back of them in their efforts. If you cannot attend another Board of Trade meeting all winter, please be sure to attend this annual meeting next Tuesday anyway. Everyone is invited regardless of membership. Come anyway.

And if you think you haven't anything to say, don't let that keep you away. Come and bring your neighbor.

TAX CUTS WILL TAKE MILLION OFF ROLLS

House Body Approves of Increased Personal Exemptions From Income Tax.

Washington.—Increased personal exemptions from income tax were approved by the house ways and means committee. A sweeping reduction in rates also was agreed upon. The exemption increase will remove 1,000,000 persons from the tax rolls. It is estimated.

The present $1,000 exemption for single persons was increased to $1,500 and the $2,500 exemption for heads of families was raised to $3,500.

The 400 exemption for dependents remains the same, but the age limit was lifted from eighteen to twenty-one when the children are still in school.

The committee, acting in executive session, also approved a reduction in the maximum surtax rate from 40 to 20 per cent, as recommended by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, and cut normal rates. The 20 per cent surtax will apply on income above $100,000, with the lower brackets still to be worked out.

The new normal tax rates, as approved by the committee, are 1 1/2 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income, instead of 2 per cent, as it present; 3 per cent on the next $4,000, instead of 4 per cent as at present, and 5 per cent on amounts above $8,000 in place of the existing 6 per cent.

Instead of repealing the present 25 per cent credit on earned income, as had been contemplated in the treasury suggestion for a reduction of the lowest normal tax to 1 per cent, the committee voted to retain it.

The committee agreed tentatively to limit the aggregate tax reduction to approximately $900,000,000, which was the maximum suggested by Secretary Mellon.

It is believed that the committee will favor repeal of the taxes on automobile trucks and on tires and accessories, involving a loss of $35,000,000 in revenue.

Two Florida Land Firms Are Charged With Fraud

Chicago.—Two Florida land development schemes in which Chicagoans are said to have invested were attacked from different angles by dissatisfied purchasers. Fraud and misrepresentation were charged against officials of both companies.

Promoters of Gardendale, a 77,000-acre tract in De Soto county, Florida, were made defendants in a suit filed in the Circuit court by Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Bradford, 19 South Central avenue. The Bradfords bought 50 lots in Gardendale for $1,000, they charged, and then found that the land was unfit to live on and many miles from civilization, contrary to advertisements.

At the same time United States deputy marshals began seeking five of the principals in the Florida Lloyds organization and the International Lloyds on warrants charging use of the mails to defraud by the sale of lots near Gainesville, Fla. Federal action was taken following complaints by purchasers of the land.

Olcott, Seriously Ill, Moves to "Lucky House"

New York.—Chauncey Olcott, desperately ill, is coming back to his "lucky house," bought by his devoted wife, Rita, who clings to the hope that in that house, 17 Sutton place, her husband's life may be saved.

Mrs. Olcott wired friends in this city from Ann Arbor:

"He is very ill, indeed, and the doctors say there is no hope, but I shall start back home with him as soon as possible and take him to the lucky house, where, God willing, he will recover."

Wine on King Tut's Coffin Gives Workers Hard Task

Cairo, Egypt.—Careless priests spilled funeral libations in King Tut-Ankh-Amen's tomb, leaving a glutinous deposit, and the 35 centuries of interment makes it a difficult task for workers to extricate the successive sarcophagi and coffins, which, originally close fitting, are now tightly stuck together by the layer of congealed wine. The final step is not likely to be undertaken for weeks.

Plenty of Turkeys for Thanksgiving This Year

Washington.—There will be plenty of turkeys for Thanksgiving, the Department of Agriculture said, reporting the crop only 4 per cent smaller than last year. Increased production was reported in all states except Texas, Illinois, Kansas, Oklahoma and California, with the crop in most sections hatched earlier than usual.

Army and Navy Cut Personnel

Washington.—Curtailments of personnel because of "lack of funds" were announced by both the army and navy. The navy cuts its strength from 84,288 to 81,700 and the army is eliminating various motor units.

Fort Dodge Cars Quit

Fort Dodge, Iowa.—Failure to meet operating expenses, which have increased each year while earnings have decreased, has resulted in an order to abandon street car service.

RED CROSS AID TO VETS MOUNTING

Heavier Demands for War Service Laid to New Legislation Granting Wide Benefits.

ACTIVE FORCES AIDED ALSO

Duty to Ex-Servicemen and Service Men First Responsibility of the Red Cross.

A marked increase in the service given by the American Red Cross to ex-servicemen, through chapters, hospitals, Government and Red Cross offices during the past year, and which volume is expected to be maintained during most of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1926, is shown in the reports of the war service activities of the organization, just completed.

Service to the disabled and to men now in active service continued to be one of the primary obligations of the Red Cross. The increased activities in this regard were attributed largely to the legislation giving new benefits to ex-servicemen.

The keystone of the Red Cross service lies in the Home Service work of the chapters to veterans and men still in service. At the close of the fiscal year June 30, 1925, 2,591 chapters were active in this work and had expended approximately $2,237,000.

Included in their work was assistance to ex-servicemen in making out adjusted compensation papers, in the handling of claims reopened, or made possible under liberalized terms of the World War Veterans' Act of 1924; and in many other ways.

An unusual amount of legislation passed by Congress and State bodies has necessitated the issue of much new material in the past year. Legislation was passed during the year liberalizing conditions applying to hospitalization, compensation, and other benefits under the Veterans' Bureau; this in turn has entailed reopening of many claims formerly disallowed, filing of many new ones, and many applications for hospitalization. The Claims Service at National Headquarters this year handled 17,506 in comparison with 12,010 cases the previous year.

Increased service to men in hospitals was noted, as well in the number of hospitals in which service was maintained by the organization. Due to new legislation an increase of over 6,000 patients were admitted for hospitalization, a new peak approximating that of March, 1922. Since a large number of this group includes patients not eligible for compensation, the solution of their personal and family problems has involved careful study by the National Organization.

There are 30,000 disabled ex-servicemen in Government hospitals every day of the year, and their need has directly led to a revival of the best known and perhaps most popular activity the Red Cross sponsored in war—a new campaign for knitted "Red Cross sweaters." These articles are among the few not furnished by the Government.

For the men still on active duty in the Army, Navy and Marines, the Red Cross during the year maintained Field Directors at all important stations, camps, and hospitals of these armed forces of the country.

A monthly average of 95,531 service and ex-servicemen were aided by the Red Cross during the year.

The man in service, and the man who has served his country are among the primary responsibilities for which the American Red Cross is chartered by Congress. Nevertheless it has many other obligations and it is on this basis that an appeal will be made for a larger enrollment than ever during the Annual Roll Call, Armistice Day, November 11, to November 20.

Disturbed Sleep

Caused From Bladder Weakness. Nature's Way of Telling You of "Danger Ahead"

J. H. Hanford, 7155 Yale Ave., Chicago, Ill., says, "For two years I have been troubled with gravel. Many times it would cause me to get up eight to twelve times at night, and it was very painful. Lithiated Buchu cleared me up in a week. I will be glad to tell or write my experience." Lithiated Buchu is not a patent medicine as the formula is on the label. It cleanses the bladder as epsom salts do the bowels, driving out abnormal deposits, neutralizing excess acid, thereby relieving irritation which causes disturbed sleep. It is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost two cents each at all drug stores. Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Mac & Gidley's, Druggists. 10-29;2-18

American Slang Spreads

Every language has its slang, of course; the dictionary remarks that the word "slang" itself is derived from the Norwegian phrase "slengja kjetten," which means "to sling the jaw." But no other language is in a position to give its founding words the same publicity that predominance in the air and on the motion picture screen affords to the American.

Getting Up Nights

Is One of Nature's Danger Signals. A Healthy Bladder Does Not "Act at Night."

Irritation, excessive acidity or abnormal deposits may be the cause. It needs cleansing. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) acts on the kidneys and bladder as Epsom Salts on the bowels. R. D. Neblett, 10 Oak St., Battle Creek, Mich., says: "For three years I had to get up three times at night. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) helped me in two days. I now do heavy work." It isn't a patent medicine. The formula is on the label. Sold by leading drug stores or Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Mac & Gidley's, Druggists.

She intends to go to New York from here to visit another daughter.

Altho not very well attended the dance given by Grayling Post No. 1006, American Legion, at the school gymnasium last evening (Armistice night) was very well enjoyed by those who did attend. The affair was given to help fill the endowment fund, and about $25 was realized, which is very much appreciated by the members. Schram's three-piece orchestra furnished the music and it was fine.

There was a nice attendance at the Board of Trade dancing party, Saturday night at the Club rooms. Music was furnished by a three-piece orchestra, consisting of Leo Schram, piano; Herman Hanson, violin, and Gordon Chamberlin, traps. The music was excellent. Lunch was served by Mrs. McLeod. These parties are proving very popular and very enjoyable. There will be another in the near future. They are for members of the Board of Trade and their families.

One of the interesting and important things that the Department of Conservation has been doing this fall is the collection of intestinal tracts of partridge, which are sent to an eastern chemist for the purpose of analysis, for the study of diseases that seem to be effecting these game birds. A number of our hunters complied with the request of the game department and sent in the intestines of some of the birds killed during the recent hunting season. Game Warden John Speck sent in eight tracts personally.

Bernie Johnson, who has been the efficient and obliging pharmacist at the Central Drug store for the past year left this morning for Jackson, where he has purchased a drug store. Mr. Johnson, who is an enterprising young man made many warm friends during his stay in Grayling, who wish him much success.

The call of the open was just a little more than Frank Dreese could resist as the approaching of the deer-hunting season drew nigh, so last Monday he turned the business at the store over to his clerks and beat it for the northern Peninsula. He is making the trip by auto and when he left he expected to be joined by a party of four from Grand Rapids. It is a rare season when Frank fails to fill his deer license, and the open season always finds him in the woods.

It is with a great deal of sorrow that we report the death of Ed Roy Craig of Mio, that occurred last Sunday night, from pneumonia. For a number of years Mr. Craig was editor and owner of the Lewiston Journal, which publication was discontinued about five or six years ago. At that time he purchased the Mio Telegram, which publication he conducted up to the time of his death. He had been ill about a week. He was an active member of the Oddfellow lodge of Mio and was owner and manager of the motion picture theatre of that place. He is survived by his wife and four children. Out of respect for the deceased the annual American Legion dancing party, that was to have taken place Wednesday night was postponed indefinitely.

Henry Borchers of Beaver Creek township had a narrow escape yesterday morning at about 9:00 o'clock, when his automobile skidded on the icy road at the State street bridge and went over the embankment, turning completely over and landing upside down in the river. When the machine neared the embankment Mr. Borchers made a leap from the car also landing in the river on his feet some distance from the car, escaping with a cold ducking and a sprained ankle. The auto was badly wrecked and at noon a team of horses with a number of men succeeded in hauling it out. It was a thrilling experience and one that Mr. Borchers will not soon forget.

Highway Engineer H. A. Clemetsen who has been stationed at Grayling for the past year and a half, has been transferred by the State departments to Alpena, and with his family left for that place Wednesday. A revision of the highway department heads has made this change necessary. Mr. Clemetsen will be in charge of the work of maintenance in North Eastern Michigan. The construction work in that part of the state will be under the management of Engineer Guy H. Green who also will have his headquarters at Alpena. It is with much regret that we are to lose the fine Clemetsen family. During their brief residence in Grayling they have made a lot of good friends by their splendid personality and friendliness.

Mrs. Crane had indigestion for ten years; Tanlac brought immediate relief.

As a climax to long years of suffering, Mrs. Hattie Crane got so bad she couldn't sleep and there were days when she couldn't walk across the floor. At times the gas pressure was so great she could scarcely breathe. She was faint and dizzy.

She writes: "Tanalac brought immediate relief and six bottles were enough to rid me of my troubles and bring back the joy of living. My health is better than ever and I am so pleased with Tanlac I praise it to everybody."

*Authentic statement from our files.

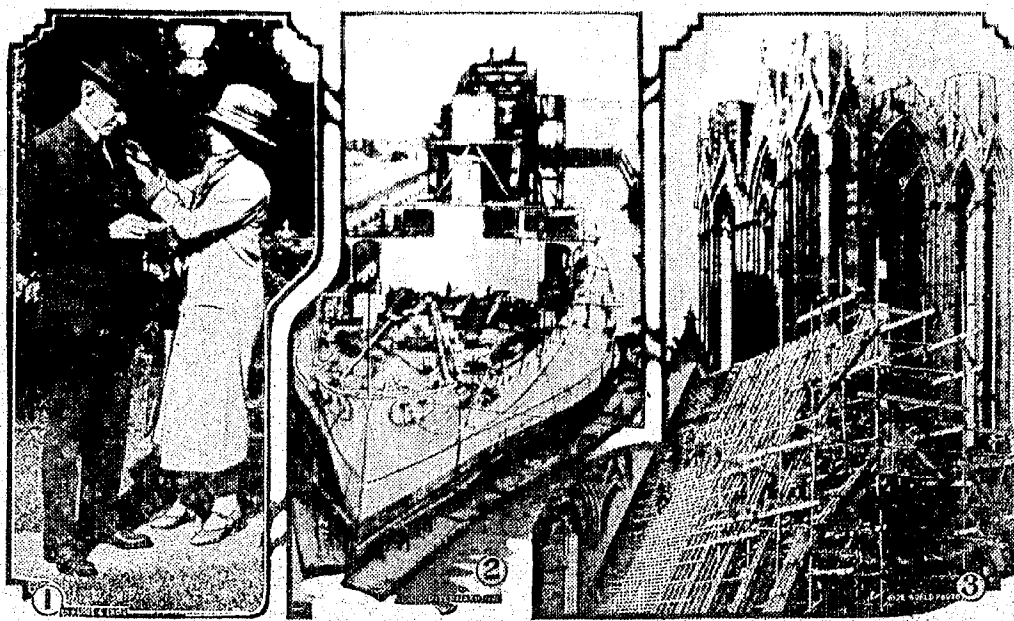

You don't have to take our word for Tanlac. Just try this marvelous tonic yourself and see how quickly it brings results. There is nothing like Tanlac to cleanse and revitalize sluggish blood, restore lost appetites and put the whole body in fighting trim.

Results come quick. You start feeling better right from the first dose. Before the bottle is gone you will wonder what miracle has happened to you.

Tanalac is absolutely pure and harmless. It is a natural tonic, a formula of roots, barks and healing herbs gathered from every part of the globe to bring you health and strength.

NEWS REVIEW OF CURRENT EVENTS

Walker's Election as Mayor of New York Is Big Triumph for Gov. Al Smith.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

NATIONAL interest in last week's elections centered mainly on New York city where "Jimmy" Walker, the Tammany-Smith candidate for mayor, was pitted against Frank D. Waterman, millionaire Republican nominee. Little doubt of Walker's victory had existed, but the size of the plurality—more than 401,000—caused something of a sensation. Actually it was a spectacular triumph for Gov. Al Smith and fixes him in his place as the foremost figure in the Democratic party. He says he will retire from politics at the end of his term, but if he wishes it he is assured of the support of the Eastern "wet" delegations for the Presidential nomination in the next Democratic national convention. That of course doesn't mean that he could be nominated, for the Southern and Western Democrats are still dry in the main.

In addition to putting over his gubernatorial candidate, Smith won a big victory in the state, for the four amendments to the state constitution which he warmly supported all carried, despite the fight on three of them made by the Republicans under the direction of Senator Wadsworth, Representative Ogden Mills and State Chairman Morris. These leaders of the G. O. P. in the state suffered considerable loss of prestige, for they are accused of bungling the fight on the amendments. The only one the Republicans supported provides for a reform of the judiciary.

Democrats scored another victory in New Jersey, where the issue was clearly prohibition and their candidate for governor, A. Harry Moore, wet, defeated Arthur Whitney, dry, Republican and endorsed by the Anti-Saloon league, by a plurality of about 40,000. Immediately after learning of his election Mr. Moore announced that as soon as he was inaugurated he would begin a movement to have congress modify the Volstead law so as to permit the manufacture and sale of beers and light wines.

Municipal elections in Indiana resulted in victories for the Republicans in Indianapolis, Terre Haute, Evansville, Fort Wayne, Lafayette, Peru, Elkhart, Crawfordsville, and several other cities; with the exception of Indianapolis, all these had been given by the Democrats for four years. Among the Hoosier cities won by the Democrats were South Bend, Marion and Richmond.

In a nominally non-partisan election Boston, which has been controlled by the Democrats for sixteen years, was captured by the Republicans, who elected Malcolm E. Nichols mayor.

The Ku Klux Klan figured prominently in two elections, and broke even. It supported J. R. Duvall, who was elected mayor of Indianapolis; but Charles Bowles, its candidate for mayor of Detroit, was decisively beaten by John W. Smith, the present executive.

COL. WILLIAM MITCHELL'S court martial now promises to be a long drawn out affair. On Monday of last week the prosecution completed its presentation of proof that the colonel had said the things he is accused of saying, and the defense, in cross questioning the witnesses, was in the main satisfied to elicit admissions from army officers that Mitchell's statements had not caused insubordination or lack of discipline so far as they knew. Then the prosecution rested its case, and next day the defense asked and obtained adjournment to the following Monday in order that it might have opportunity to confer with the prosecution as to what witnesses the prosecution would agree that the defense might summon. General Horvitz, presiding, was indignant at the delay and scored the prosecution for it, but could not deny the request for adjournment.

Colonel Mitchell and Congressman Reid, his chief counsel, spent the remainder of the week preparing a new list of charges and criticisms which the colonel will make and a tremendously long recital of details with which he will attempt to sustain them. Colonel Mitchell wants to call 71 witnesses, including admirals, generals, technicians, flyers, and members of congress, the secretaries of war, navy, and agriculture, Maj. Eddie Rickenbacker, Lowell Smith, Reed Landis of Chicago, Donald MacMillan, the Arctic explorer, Admiral Sims, and Mrs. Lansdowne.

"The whole defense," said Mr. Reid, "will be that Colonel Mitchell spoke for the good of the country and with pure intent. That it was necessary that he speak we shall prove by the conditions which we shall uncover in detail. We shall not withdraw a hair's breadth from our position that all Colonel Mitchell said was and is true, and that more which he now is going to say was and is true."

NATIONAL COMMANDER MCQUIGG of the American Legion presented to President Coolidge that organization's national legislative program, which includes provision for a universal draft of all the country's man power and resources in time of war. The legislation asked would give the President control of transportation materials together with farm products and their prices. It would provide that there would be no slackers and no profiteers in case of another war.

Other legislative recommendations include provision for medical treatment and adjusted compensation for certain classes of disabled men now excluded under the law; the creation of a medical corps in the veterans' bureau and construction of 2,000 additional beds in veterans' fireproof hospitals.

ITALY'S debt funding mission arrived in Washington and at the first meeting with the American commission Count Vlpil set forth his country's financial troubles. Subcommittees are studying Italy's capacity to pay and an early agreement on the terms for settlement of the $2,138,000,000 debt is expected.

Resumption of negotiations concerning the French debt was promised by Premier Painleve in a ministerial declaration, but as his government was likely to be upset at any time because of Socialist defection there is some doubt about the debt matter. If the new Painleve cabinet does not fall it is believed Senator Henri Beranger will come to Washington to try to succeed where M. Caillaux failed. The Painleve ministry obtained a vote of confidence at the opening session of the chamber of deputies by the narrow margin of 221 to 189, the 103 Socialists refraining from voting and a number of the premier's political foes supporting him only temporarily.

FRANCE'S troubles in Syria are increasing, for though the Druses were defeated at Damascus and elsewhere, the Bedouin bandits are growing more active. One of their leaders, Bakry Bey, has proclaimed a Syrian republic, with himself as president, and is said to be trying to capture the city of Homs in order to establish a provisional government which can appeal to the League of Nations. Damascus is full of French troops and guns and is thoroughly barricaded, and thousands of its residents are fleeing. Last week American Consul Knabenshue at Beirut summoned to that port the two American destroyers that were at Alexandria, although he said there was no immediate danger to Americans there or in Damascus.

RIZA KHAN, who had been premier and dictator of Persia for two years, now sits on the throne of that country as King Pahlavi, having yielded to the requests of leaders of all parties, big land owners and certain ecclesiastics. Thereupon the majlis or parliament formally deposed Ahmed Mirza, the shah, and abolished the Kadjar dynasty, which had ruled over Persia since 1779. The crown was made elective and Riza promised to call a constitutional assembly to make the necessary changes in the basic law. His first acts were to liberate all political prisoners and to grant amnesty to the deposed shah and all members of his family and his household. He also ordered the price of bread reduced through government subsidy.

Drake, assistant secretary of commerce, is chairman, declares that the possibilities which it sees for the development of commercial aviation in the United States can be realized through a definite and continuing program of government assistance for the industry. The lack of these and of a definite legal status and government control for the industry, it found, have been the chief causes for its failure to keep pace with development in Europe.

In addition to its function of regulating air navigation, including li-

There was only slight opposition to the accession of Riza, and the crown prince left the country.

So much information is given in censored dispatches from Teheran. But from other sources it is gathered that Riza's coup d'etat was inspired by British influence and that he forced the parliament to take the action detailed above, after which the legislators were compelled to flee for their lives by Riza's hired gunmen. Shah Ahmed Mirza, who has been spending most of his time in Paris, was in the hands of a party in Persia that was in close touch with the Russian Bolsheviks, while Riza has been friendly with the British. The whole affair is really a development of the struggle between Russia and England for control over the oil fields of Persia and the routes to the Far East. The new government endorses the American financial mission headed by Dr. Arthur Millsbaugh.

DRYS from all parts of the country gathered in Chicago for the biennial convention of the Anti-Saloon league. Wayne B. Wheeler, chief counsel, in his report said in substance: "Prohibition enforcement has raised scores of puzzling problems. We have helped solve them. The wets have blasted leak after leak in the prohibition dam. We have helped close them and to mop up the puddles they created."

"We have given our aid to the adoption of new laws, the securing of court decisions and the support of administrative action in doing these things."

"It has been an uphill fight but the fact has been less significant than the fact that we have moved up the hill steadily. No similar policy of government has ever shown a more continuous, constructive gain."

"The active opposition of the wets is significant testimony that the law is far from being a dead letter. Instead it is a red letter law."

Mr. Wheeler outlined three measures which would be urged on congress. One is placing all prohibition agents under civil service; the second is increasing the penalties for violation of the national prohibition law; the third is for deportation of aliens convicted of violating the prohibition or narcotic acts.

Among the speakers at the convention were Andrew J. Volstead, who called attention to certain provisions in the law that are overlooked by the courts and enforcement officers, and Rear Admiral Billard, who told about the coast guard's warfare on the rum fleets and smugglers.

AGREEMENTS under which the conductors and trainmen are working expire on December 31, and it seems likely that the two brotherhoods will demand a return to the war time scale of wages, or an increase of 7 per cent over present rates. The grand lodge officers and general chairmen representing the men on Western roads already have approved such a demand, and those of the Eastern and Southern lines are expected to take the same action.

TARIFF autonomy for China was accepted in principle by the international customs conference in Peking, and the American delegation offered a plan for putting the principle into effect not later than January 1, 1929. Dr. C. T. Wang for China pledged the abolition of the tikin or tax on interprovincial commerce before that date. A committee of the conference is now framing interim measures.

THE house committee on ways and means closed the hearings on tax reduction and is now busy determining the total amount of the cut—probably $300,000,000—and drafting the new law. One of the last witnesses heard was Gen. L. C. Andrews, assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of prohibition enforcement. He asked that the alcohol tax rate be cut in half to kill the illicit alcohol market, and that a special levy be imposed on cereal beverages so that the enforcement unit would have the right to supervise the breweries and stop the wholesale flood of illegal beer.

The committee voted to increase the excise tax on single persons from $1,000 to $1,500 and that for heads of families from $2,500 to $3,500. The 40 per cent surtax rate is to be cut to 20 per cent.

Summarizing conditions in the industry, the report declared that "notwithstanding past and present handicaps, the industry has survived and made progress creditable under the adverse conditions it has encountered. There is no doubt," it added, "that under really favorable conditions its great possibilities will be realized."

HOW TWO WOMEN AVOIDED OPERATIONS

The Following Letters of Mrs. Thurston and Mrs. Beard Carry an Encouraging Message to Other Sick Women

MRS. ETHEL THURSTON
824 N. PINE STREET, LIMA, OHIO

Lima, Ohio.—"I want to tell you how your medicine has helped me. For weeks I suffered with awful pains from inflammation and I was in such misery that I had to bend double to get relief. I could not be touched or jarred, had awful pain all over my abdomen and could not touch my feet to the floor. It was impossible for me to straighten up and the pains never ceased. I took treatments for some time and finally was told I would have to have an operation. I do not believe in operations, and I had read so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I told my husband I would try it before I gave up. I soon began to feel that it was doing me good. The awful misery began to leave me, also the backache. I have a good appetite and am gaining in weight. Taking the medicine was the best thing I ever did. I feel like it has saved my life and I do not hesitate to say so to my friends. At least it saved me from a dreaded operation and I am still taking it. I am willing to answer letters from women asking about the medicine."

—Mrs. ETHEL THURSTON, 824 North Pine Street, Lima, Ohio.

Mrs. Beard's Letter

Eddy, Texas.—"I will write you a few words, thinking it will do some one else good. Two doctors said I would have to be operated on because for nearly twelve months I suffered from a weakness from which I could get no relief. I was restless and nervous and was not able to walk across the house. They said it was the Change of Life. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers, and as I could not get any help from doctors I thought I would give that a trial. I began with the liquid and it helped me, then you advised me to take the tablet form and I began to improve rapidly. I have gained in weight from 105 to 170 pounds. I recommend it to all women with this trouble."
—Mrs. M. E. BEARD, R. No. 1, Box 145, Eddy, Texas.

Tracing Age of Man
Efforts to fix the date of the first appearance of man on earth have proved futile. We can only fall back upon the methods used in geology. Man as we find him now first appeared in the concluding phase of the Pleistocene period as the artist of the caves at a time when the British Isles formed part of the continent of Europe.

Hungarian Barber Is
Heir to 100 Millions
Vienna.—Budapest newspapers state that John Szentpeter, a poor Hungarian barber, has received word from the United States that he has inherited $100,000,000, representing the estate of Major Debossy, who fought as aide de camp side by side with Kossuth in the Hungarian revolution of 1848-49.

After Kossuth escaped to Turkey on the collapse of the revolution against Austria, Debossy fled to the United States and there amassed an enormous fortune, which, upon his death, passed to his sister. The latter recently died and it was found that the poor barber is the only surviving member of the family.

He is an old man now and the news of the vast inheritance seemed to excite him less than it did the people who came to congratulate him.

French Franc Is Lowest Since Big Break in 1924

New York.—Pounded down by the efforts of Frenchmen to convert their wealth into reliable currencies, the French franc sold for 3.88 1/2 cents, which brought it slightly below the value of the Italian lira and to the lowest point it has touched since speculators drove it to 3.39 cents in March, 1924.

The bulk of the selling of francs, which is taking place in Paris and London rather than New York, comes from French interests distrustful of the franc's future.

One Laugh After Another

The Gerhards Will Entertain Here in a Wonderful Program of Music and Comedy.

THE GERHARDS

Louis H. Gerhardt is a basso, 'cellist and impersonator. Orla O. Gerhardt is a reader and pianist. Together they give a wonderful program of music and comedy. Either Mr. or Mrs. Gerhardt can give an entire evening's program alone and the other would hardly be missed. They have worked together for years, until their programs are well-nigh perfect.

Mr. Gerhardt has a great bass voice. He sings songs in costume and dialect, both humorous and serious, is an expert on the piano and the 'cello, and as an entertainer, impersonator and comedian is practically in a class by himself.

Mrs. Gerhardt is an entertainer of equal ability. Together they put on sketches and comedy numbers that are considered among the funniest things being given.

The Gerhards' program, while it contains much of seriousness and beauty in both music and entertainment, fairly bubbles over with rollicking fun. Anyone who has heard Louis Gerhardt give "Hans Bummelheimer's Graduation Address" (it's about an old fellow that left his written speech at home and tried to talk without it) will never forget it. And Mrs. Orla Gerhardt, in her impersonation of "Old Aunt Doleful Cheering the Sick" is a scream.

This is one of the very best attractions offered on the local lyceum course this year.

MUSSOLINI HALTS MOB SEEKING VENGEANCE

Three Held in Plot to Assassinate Premier.

Rome.—Premier Mussolini, who had a narrow escape from assassination, subdued a vast crowd of his followers who were determined on summary vengeance.

"You must obey. I wish it!" cried the premier when there were insistent shouts for revenge.

And the crowd, which gave Mussolini the greatest demonstration in his career, became quiet.

Following the discovery of a plot to slay the premier on the day in which Italy was joining in the celebration of the allied victory in the World war, it became known that the police had arrested Tito Zaniboni, former Socialist deputy; Gen. Luigi Capello, a Mason, and Giuseppe Quaglia, former secretary to Zaniboni and now editor of Popolo, organ of Don Sturzo, leader of the Catholic Democratic party.

The latter is known as one of the bitterest foes of Fascism.

The newspaper organs of the anti-Fascist bloc have been suppressed and all Masonic lodges have been sealed until further orders. Other important arrests are expected soon.

Efforts to place responsibility for the plot on the Masons failed when it was learned that the attempt was the outgrowth of a secret meeting of Socialists, Catholics, Democrats, Garibaidians and Masons all in a bloc opposing Mussolini.

The police declare that Zaniboni had selected a room on the level with the balcony from which the premier would speak. The police followed Zaniboni and when they seized him they said they found in his possession a sharp-shooter rifle.

Too Much for Him
